What Is The Board Of Trade?

The Kelowna Board of Trade is seeking to increase its membership. The wonder is not that it should seek to increase its membership but that it should have to make the effort. An organization with a long a record for effective service to the community as the Board of Trade should have no difficulty in obtaining the support of the great majority of the people of this community.

The Board of Trade is not a body remote from the average businessman. It does not meet behind closed doors to make weighty decisions that adversely affect this or that individual. The Board of Trade is, in effect, people who are desirous of promoting the welfare of this community in any and all possible ways; its membership qualifications are wide and generous and its general meetings provide ample and full opportunity for the debate of any matters of interest to this community.

Any person who is interested in promoting the welfare of this area may join; individuals are welcomed as well as businesses. The membership is a pretty fair cross-section of life in this city and, yes, district because the Board welcomes rural members. People from almost all walks of life are members and most of their occupations are such that no material advantage can accrue from their service excepting that as the community improves its position, their position improves, too. This is borne out by a quick glance at the business activities of the members of the executive of this current year. There one will find a sales agent, a chartered accountant, a barrister, a radio news editor, a truck line operator, a bank manager, an advertising manager, a men's wear retailer, a fruit grower, a restaurant operator, an auto camp operator, an alderman, a packing house manager, a farmer, an orchardist, a wholesaler and retailer, a druggist, a garage operator, a ladies' wear retailer.

That is the occupational list of the members of the executive. While it covers a broad field, the same list applied to the general membership would extend into every phase of business and community life. The Board of Trade is, in short, the community itself; or, at least, those persons who are desirous of pulling their weight in the community or, at least, supporting those persons who are willing to pull their weight.

Exempting the City Council alone, service on the Board of Trade executive is the most onerous community duty a person can undertake, and, further, it is probably the most important. The Board of Trade has a long record of achievements to which it can point with no small pride. Some of these it brought about itself; in others it provided the spark or push which was required.

There is no legitimate excuse that can be produced for any business in this community—and we repeat any business—for failing to become a member of the Board of Trade. We say this because there is not a business in this community which does not benefit directly or indirectly from the activities of the Board of Trade. No business—and we repeat no business—can operate here and no individual can live in this city without becoming a recipient of the advantages and the progress which have accrued to this community through the activities of the Board of Trade. That is a broad statement, but it cannot be challenged successfully. The failure of a business to join this organization—which is its own—simply means that that business is willing to let the other fellow not only carry its share of the load but wants to ride on his back as well while he is doing it.

Redistribution

As reported in our issue of Thursday last, federal political battles in the Okanagan will henceforth be somewhat different than they have been in the past; the Valley is to be split into two constituencies. The decision of the redistribution committee of the House of Commons came as no surprise. The surprise was that the division is to be made north of Kelowna rather than south of Peachland, as recommended by the local committee which was consulted by the Ottawa authorities.

Apparently the reason for the last minute change was that Kelowna had to be shifted to the south to achieve a reasonable balance of population in the two ridings.

Shifting the line north of Kelowna—to run east and west at approximately Reid's Corner—thence down the centre of the lake to turn west at Trepanier Creek, splits the Central Okanagan right in two politically. Ellison, Winfield, part of Rutland, part of Glenmore, the westside of the lake, and yes, Westbank, will be voting for candidates running in the northern riding which extends to and includes Revelstoke. The major parts of Rutland and Glenmore, Kelowna and all the eastside of the lake and Peachland will vote with the people of Penticton, Oliver, Osoyoos, Princeton and Grand Forks.

The community which seems to be out on a limb, figuratively and literally, is Westbank. Under the new scheme it sits at the extreme end of a long panhandle, practically surrounded by the southern riding and without any other population group of any consequence in the northern riding anywhere near it.

The redistribution committee, it would seem, pulled a bloomer in regard to Westbank. It would seem to have been more sensible had the committee simply extended the southern boundary of townships 23 and 24 (the Reid's Corner crossroad, approximately) not only to the centre of the lake, as it did, but across the lake to place the two score voters in Bear Creek and the five hundred-odd Westbank voters in their natural habitat. Instead, they have made them orphans who will receive some attention every four years from candidates seeking their votes, but for the remainder of the time will be forgotten, unheralded and unsung.

The two new ridings will be called "Okanagan-Revelstoke" and "Okanagan-Boundary". North and South Okanagan had been suggested but there seemed to be some fear that the latter name would conflict with the provincial ridings of the same names, although why there should be any conflict and what it would matter if there should be, we fail to see. As a matter of (Continued on Page 6)

Ballot Boxes Being Checked

Official check on voting returns in the South Okanagan riding in the June 12 provincial election, got underway at 9 o'clock this morning.

Returning officer Harvey Wilson, is supervising the check. It will be late tonight or early tomorrow morning before official figures are revealed.

Up to noon today, about 50 per cent of the ballot boxes had been examined for rejects. Mr. Wilson said around 40 per cent of the rejects were unmarked ballots. Counting of absentee votes will get underway this afternoon.

A complete count of first choice votes is not being made. Mr. Wilson explained, as candidates are satisfied returns are correct in view of the fact they had their own scrutineers on hand the night of the election when the preliminary count was made. One or two boxes were counted, and found to be correct.

After statements of deputy returning officers are checked, counting of absentee votes will get underway.

IWA Seeking 35c Hour Wage Boost In B.C. Interior

CONTRACT negotiations between International Woodworkers (CIO-CCL) and southern interior lumbermen are expected to get underway in Vancouver on Monday, it was learned this morning. Negotiations open with northern interior operators in Prince George on Saturday.

Meanwhile the IWA has announced its demands affecting around 5,000 interior loggers and sawmill workers. Union negotiators said they would seek a general 35 cent hourly pay hike, which includes the cost of improved vacations, nine paid statutory holidays, employer-paid health and welfare plan, union shop and a 40-hour week.

The union with more than 30,000 members in the coast industry now in their twentieth day of strike, will swing into wage talks with interior operators this week-end. It is understood S. M. Simpson is now in Prince George area conferring with northern operators.

COURIER OFFICE WILL CLOSE AT NOON SATURDAYS

Effective next Saturday, The Courier business office will close at 12:00 o'clock noon on Saturdays.

The curtailed Saturday hours will be in effect for the months of July and August. Normal business hours during the week are from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Speeding in Winfield Zone Brings Fines

Following complaints from Winfield residents, police cracked down on speeders in the 30 miles an hour zone.

Three motorists appeared in district police court last week for exceeding the speed limit. Stipendiary Magistrate A. D. Marshall fined G. F. Cross of Rosedale, B.C., and N. Berkner of Westbank $10 each and costs and levied a fine of $15 and costs on F. Woodkey of Winfield.

A. OLLERICH'S BROTHER DIES

Larry P. Ollerich, brother of Andy Ollerich, of Kelowna, died of a heart attack in his hotel room in Prince George on Friday. Superintendent of City Construction Co., he was found in his room by an associate, Ingval Torgeson, of Vancouver.

Forty-one years of age, he is survived by his wife, Phyllis, of Vancouver; a daughter, Connie, 14; two sons, Roger, 12 and David 9; three brothers and five sisters. One brother Andrew lives in Kelowna and a sister, Mrs. Carol Gray, in Vancouver. Funeral services were held in Vancouver this morning.

PRAISES CITY'S PREPAVING WORK

As far as street paving goes, Kelowna is "getting the best possible value for its money." This was the key statement made by D. W. Simpson, superintendent of the Storms Contracting Co. (Pacific) Ltd., to a Courier representative.

Kelowna, Mr. Simon inferred, gets the best value of any city because of the excellent preparation work carried on by the city public works department. Mr. Simon said that while the construction company always does have to do certain finishing touches, the preliminary work was well handled by the city crew and this made the paving program proceed with a minimum of delay and confusion.

He expressed the opinion that the city engineer, G. Meckling, knew what he was about. "He knows what is going on underneath, and he will not let any of it be paved until he is sure all precautions have been taken," Mr. Simon said. "You are getting the best possible job for the money." There has been no trouble with the pavement laid last year and there should be no trouble with that laid this year. "It was a clear-cut deal well handled."

Chief Justice Critical Over Local Court Room Facilities

FIND PIECE OF WING TIP NEAR KELOWNA

A small piece of the wing tip of the ill-fated plane that crashed Saturday into Okanagan Lake about a mile north of Penticton was retrieved at Okanagan Mission this morning.

Southerly winds the past few days are believed responsible for pushing the floating portion some 25 miles north of the crash scene. Royal Canadian Mounted Police were advised of the find and brought the portion of the plane to the city.

Dragging operations, hindered at times by choppy water, still are going on in an effort to raise the plane and its sole occupant, Pilot Alex Anthony of West Vancouver. The electrical contractor was en route from Trail to Vancouver when the mishap occurred during a driving rainstorm.

False Alarm Draws Ire Of Firemen

An unpopular but wanted individual in the city today is the one who set off the automatic fire alarm system by pulling the lever on the box at Bernard and Ethel shortly before 7:00 a.m. yesterday.

The general alarm, the first one since the new automatic system was officially put into use June 28 (eight days earlier), brought out just about every member of the Kelowna Volunteer Fire Brigade. Firemen were perturbed to put it mildly, when they learned it was a false alarm. Many of the volunteers were only partially dressed, jumping into bare essentials for the rush to call box 3-2-1.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE
"If it was meant for a joke, then someone has a distorted sense of humor," a spokesman for the fire department said. "He wouldn't think it so funny if someone got hurt or killed hurrying to answer the call."

False fire alarms are a dangerous and unlawful practice, another spokesman reiterated. No one should tamper with the fire alarm boxes unless it is to summon firemen.

Parents are asked to impress upon their children that fire alarm boxes are to be used for emergency only.

Penalty, upon conviction of setting off a false alarm, is a $100 fine.

MORE PEOPLE URGED TO WEAR REGATTA HATS

Regatta officials have made another appeal for all citizens to wear Regatta headgear.

While Saturday was designated as a special starting day, fewer yachting caps than usual appear in evidence.

A plentiful supply of these smart yachting caps, gob hats, and neat, informal jop hats for feminine Regatta boosters, are available all over the city. They sell at almost cost price.

Regatta committee members feel that everyone should support the idea, such as clerks, garage attendants, holiday-bound residents, men, women, boys and girls.

No Further Sittings Will Be Held In City

NO further sittings of the Supreme Court of British Columbia will be held in Kelowna until court room accommodation is improved.

His Lordship Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris made this observation Wednesday morning at the opening of the civil sittings of the Supreme Court of B.C. The Chief Justice was critical of the facilities in Kelowna which are provided by the provincial government and had transferred the civil sittings from the court room in the Casorso Block to the police court magistrate's office above Hall and Hankey's bakery on Bernard Avenue.

While it is necessary for court officials and witnesses to walk up one flight of stairs to the magistrate's court room, the Chief Justice nevertheless found it no improvement over the Casorso Block where there are three flights of stairs. Referring to the latter court room, the Chief Justice said the long flights of stairs work a hardship on older people and those in poor health, while there is danger of a fire hazard especially with a crowded court room.

For several years, the City Council, Board of Trade and other local organizations have been pressing the provincial government to construct a public building in Kelowna which would provide court room accommodation and also space for numerous government offices scattered throughout the city. Representations were repeatedly turned down by the government.

The city paved the way by exchanging lakeshore property opposite the City Hall, with that owned by the provincial government. After it was announced that a public building was definitely "out" for this year, the government agreed to construct a cement sea wall from the new ferry wharf to the power house. Some landscaping will also be done.

The property was exchanged for the convenience of the with the provincial government on public. Mr. Beeson stated, "We also appreciate your remarks regarding accommodation."

COMMONWEALTH FOREST GROUP TO STOP HERE

Kelowna is on the itinerary of a large group of forestry experts who will be touring Canada later in the year after the Commonwealth Forestry Conference, slated for Ottawa.

Word has been received here that the group is expected to number 50 and will include forestry officials from most members of the British Commonwealth. Arrival will be in September.

The party, which also will include press representatives, will be entertained in Kelowna by S. M. Simpson Ltd. Part of the day will be spent inspecting Simpson's forest management area on the west side of the lake.

Kelowna will be the only place in the interior of the province where the international group will stop a whole day.

SALVAGE YARD LOCATION OKAYED BY CITY COUNCIL

City Council has apparently reached a satisfactory conclusion to the problem which arose around the suggested establishment of a salvage yard on Richter, J. Zentner and W. Welsh had applied for a trade licence to operate a junk business. Adjacent residents protested.

Council has arranged that the two men have an office on the Richter site but have agreed to rent them two lots on Crowley for $5 per month. The fencing of the lots is the responsibility of the operators. Mr. Welsh who attended council meeting last week, agreed to the conditions.

Bing Cherry Crop Damaged By Rains

RECENT rains have caused considerable damage to the cherry crop, although extent of splitting is difficult to assess at the present time. Damage to the Bing crop ranges from ten to 90 per cent with somewhat less damage to the Lambert crop.

According to A. C. Lander, assistant general manager, B.C. Tree Fruits, the stage of maturity is responsible for the wide variation. In the earlier districts, damage is more severe than in northern areas.

In the Kelowna area, the loss is not heavy, except in an isolated case. A heavy crop of Lamberts is anticipated locally.

Cherry producers in Washington state have also suffered heavily. Steady rain last week-end hit the cherry crop at the peak of maturity. A large portion of the crop will go to the canners.

Mr. Lander said definite figures as to the extent of loss will be compiled by this week-end.

Total of 47 cars of fruits and vegetables have been shipped so far this season. This compared with 41 at the same time last year, and 30 in 1950.

Mr. Lander summarized the crop picture as follows:

CROP PICTURE
Apricots: Reports indicate crop making satisfactory growth. Cool weather has retarded maturity and first shipments will move a day or two later than originally expected. U.S. crop is about a week later

WHEN THE THERMOMETER points to the century mark or thereabouts, there are several things you can do about it. Find yourself a cool lake and let the waves wash over you is highly recommended.

Bruins Intent On Dishing Out 1st Loss To Tigers Saturday

JUDGING by records so far this boxla season, it will be Kelowna Bruins who will do it—if the Vernon Tigers are going to be beaten in league play at all.

Perusing the records still further, they point to the locale of such an outcome—right on Kelowna's home floor, Memorial Arena.

The final conclusion might be that it could be Saturday of this week for that is the night the Sammartino clan make their next appearance here. Proceedings for the night start at 8:30.

The keen rivalry between the two clubs—often reaching deep into the realm of bitterness—is enough to bring out larger crowds than at all other league clashes. But with an undefeated record at stake and two clubs scrapping with all the enthusiasm of school kids over it, Saturday's encounter has the largest attraction factor so far this season.

The records back up Vernon's intention to put an end to Kelowna's lengthy claim to the league title. Tigers have gone 11 games without a loss yet this season and all but three of the games were of a highly decisive nature, many of them actually no contests at all.

BRUINS COME CLOSE
The only times the Tigers have come within a whisker of losing were in their previous two appearances here. In the first game Tigers withstood a last-ditch rally by the Bruins to win 18-17.

Three weeks ago, the Bruins were in the way and held the lead all the way until the halfway mark in the final quarter. The game ended 16-14 for the Vernonites.

Only other time the Tigers had a game on their hands was in their first appearance at Salmon Arm where an under-staffed club won out 17-14. By way of comparison, Tigers clawed the Aces 32-8 at Vernon Monday night.

ADD BERTOIA, SIMPSON
Coach Al Laface has promised his many supporters as strong a club as he can possibly muster for Saturday's encounter. "We'll beat them Saturday or go down trying," the coach vowed.

As if the Vernon club was not satisfied with its performances to date, the Tigers have been bolstered with the addition of two former Vernon players—Bert Bertoia and Doug Simpson. Simpson, who played all his juvenile lacrosse in Kelowna, is betrothed to a Vernon girl.

In the only other game scheduled for the balance of this week, Kamloops and Salmon Arm will battle it out for sole possession of third place with a hook-up at Salmon Arm.

ROCHE ROBBED

PRINCETON, OKS WIN BASEBALL TOURNAMENTS

The "poor relations" became upstarts Tuesday when B.C. Interior Baseball League teams won tournaments at Pentiction and Princeton.

Classed by some zealots as "senior B," Kamloops Okonots and Princeton Royals are taking the bows today from "self-styled" "senior A's." Okonots currently lead the BCIBL while Princeton Royals, formerly of the BCIBL, are playing in a Fraser Valley loop this year.

Also basking in reflected glory are the Rutland Adanacs who dumped Kelowna's Okanagan-Mainline circuit club by the wayside in the first round of the Princeton tournament, and bowed out to Princeton in the final.

The Okonots trimmed Oliver Elks 4-2 in the final to cap top prize in the tourney at Pentiction. Earlier the Okonots "A" team spilled Pentiction 3-1. Oliver made the final at the expense of Summerland Aces.

SENSATIONAL CATCH
Over in Princeton, Bob Campbell hurled a Rutland to a 5-4 victory over Kelowna, with Ed Klebliski the losing pitcher in the seven-inning thriller. Only addition to the Rutland team was Tofy Brummet, Vernon Canadians' catcher and former Rutland player.

The game ended in spectacular fashion as Brian Roche tagged a ball that could have gone for a homer almost anywhere. But left fielder Ken Thompson, playing more in centre than usual, made a sensational jumping catch, robbing Kelowna of the tying run.

Princeton, who beat Kamloops Okonots "B" team 8-5 in the day's second game, downed Adanacs 4-1 in the nine-inning final to win the tournament.

Meanwhile the Okonots in the Princeton tourney, went to Pentiction to bolster the "A" team that eventually won the Pentiction money.

Fence On Way Up At Former Box In Park

Crews of adults and young players, spearheaded by Director Bill Baker and Juvenile Team Coach John Ritchie, have made a start in replacing the fence at the old lacrosse box in The City Park.

Posts were set up and a good part of the fence boards nailed on before preparations for the Dominion Day entertainment in that area forced a halt. Boards from the old fence around Recreation Park are being used.

retirement for good ol' baseball Tuesday, taking on the Orioles to raise money for the latter's trip to the Nelson tournament later in the week, held a strenuous workout last night with the Junior Chiefs. More than a dozen of yesterday's standbys are stiffer today because of it.

OLDTIMERS VERSUS ORIOLES! DIAMOND TREAT FOR TUESDAY

"There's never been a game like it and maybe never again!"

That's the way promoters of the baseball game between the senior club of today and the players of yesterday describe the proceedings slated for next Tuesday.

What's more the team that has been going along this far without a name will be tagged with its new handle then. From Tuesday on they will be officially known as—The Orioles.

Winner of the contest to name the team will also be made known at that time.

FISHING IN VALLEY LAKES AND STREAMS

BY JIM TREADGOLD
(Prepared from week-end reports from fishermen, camp operators and through personal trips. This is published with a view of possibly guiding others who are planning a fishing trip. Mr. Treadgold welcomes reports from anyone.—Editor.)

One thing was certain again this past week and that is that the fishermen suffered more than the fish at the hands of the weatherman. Rain was consistent at the lakes in the mountains in this district and it served to curtail fishing to a minimum.

However, those who braved the cold of the upper lakes and had a waterproof outfit, found fishing conditions quite favorable. The weather now appears to have broken and if sunny skies prevail we can expect excellent angling conditions for a period.

OKANAGAN LAKE—Slow Reports of success at surface trolling. A number of the Courier staff and 11-pounder was hooked at PEACH-LAND on a deep line with a large plug.

BEAVER LAKE—Few reports. A non-resident claimed fishing was "very good" on the black and green F6 flatfish the past week. A member of the Courier staff and a friend checked in with 13 trout for a few hours' effort Tuesday (July 1).

OYAMA LAKE—Most reports are good. The Grey Sedge fly giving good results. STREAK LAKE reports also good.

DEER LAKE—CHART-Few reports but good. WALLY SEX-SMITH claims DOREEN LAKE is very good and that CROOKED LAKE has given results on the Royal Coachman and Grey Sedge flies. Like at Beaver, the camp here will be a busy place this week-end with Americans streaming up here for the July 4 extended holiday.

BEAR LAKE—Camp operator BILL GORDON claims consistent results despite inclement weather. BILL FLECK caught seven nice ones here Sunday, all on the Silver Mallard fly. Vince Clancome reported an excellent two days on EILEEN LAKE, a 10-mile hike from BEAR. It was well worth the effort, said he.

BELGO DAM—Few reports, as road may be muddy. But fishing is good.

POSTILL and SOUTH LAKES—Consistently good reports. Fish up to three pounds. This may be a record year for South. TWINN LAKE has produced a few of the larger variety but it is still too early for this one to be at its best. Road into Postill is wet and rough but passable.

SHANNON LAKE—I have talked with a number of sportsmen who fish this lake and nearly all are concerned about the proposed fish poisoning here when the water level will be raised for an irrigation project. This lake, they point out, provides a tremendous amount of recreation for our local residents old and young, and a lot of fish for the table. The fish life—bass and perch—are self-sustaining and appear to be on the increase. No restocking has been necessary. A lot of thought is being given by both the Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club and the B.C. Game Commission. On the other hand it is feared the coarse fish may reach Okanagan Lake when the water level is raised. The question is: Will the coarse fish do any harm in Okanagan Lake where virtually every type of coarse fish exists already?

ECHO LAKE (Lumby)—One very good report that PAT BENNETT and JIMMY ALLEN, fishing in their pet lake, made a beautiful take on the aluminum flatfish this past week.

WOOD LAKE (near Westworld)—Road rough but fishing good, claims PAT BENNETT and MOIT PAIGE. The "jeep road" is not recommended for cars at present. A boat is almost a necessity though spinning can be done from the shore in places.

Three Ball Tilts Here

Scenes reminiscent of tournament days of not so long ago will be recalled for baseball patrons at The City Park Sunday.

The afternoon and evening will be used up for games. Beginning at 2:30 the Chiefs take on Oliver in a South Okanagan Junior Baseball League fixture.

At 6:15 p.m. comes a contest between the Kelowna seniors and the Pentiction Athletics.

In other Okanagan-Mainline league games this Sabbath, Kamloops travel to Oliver and Summerland will be at home to Vernon.

On the junior league card for Sunday are: Pentiction at Vernon and Summerland at Osoyoos. Naramata has a bye.

In the B.C. Interior circuit, Rutland Adanacs have an off day. Only game slated is Kamloops Okonots at Revelstoke.

Shop Talk

by MIL CRITTENDEN

PACK AND GO! That's the spirit that seems to seize us, come July. Open road... open sky... and the call of far horizons! Suddenly we yearn to be off for parts unknown... off to places that are relaxing and where the travel folders. A holiday mood prevails and Kelowna shops reflect this happy influence. So let's talk shop today about items to pamper the camper... about gifts for your week-end hostess... and other vacation "musts."

There are no two ways about it, at least HALF the success of your vacation depends on the way you look in this connection. I've got news about an absolutely fabulous line of matched cosmetics. And some timely footnotes about the 1932 "nude" sandals, the prettiest thing on two feet. So, if you're vacation-bound for one day or a dozen... DO read on!

It's here! It's bold! It's adorable! It's the new "nude" sandal and you'll find it exclusively at MEIKLE'S. This is fashion's answer for a light-hearted, light-footed summer. A mere whisper of a sandal, a crisscross of narrow straps... just a sole, a soaring heel and a crisscross of narrow straps.

All eyes focus on your pretty feet as you step out blithely in your "nude" sandals. You'll wear them daytime and evening... for these are shoes that walk discreetly with cottons and cocktail dresses alike. You'll suit the shoe to the occasion for these open, airy sandals are timed to every tick of the clock. Have them in gleaming white patent... or in red, green or white calf. Not in years has a shoe fashion created such a stir! You'll see the "nude" sandal peering from every page of the glossy fashion magazines... now see it, try it on... at MEIKLE'S. Just 8.95.

LOOK FOR CHEN YU... one of the legendary names in the world of fashion... at PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY. The celebrated nail lacquer and lipstick... in bright, blazing reds... in rosy reds subtly underscored with blue. Brighter, clearer, the heavenly hues you've always wanted, searched for! Everything you need for complete hand and nail care.

CHEN YU also presents the fabulous fluid CLOUDSILK make-up. A glossier film of CLOUDSILK will give you a totally different complexion with color, and texture that will give you the most coveted look. Best results, powder over it with compressed powder by CHEN YU... the convenient spill-proof powder cake. It's not so long ago since Canadian women used to smuggle CHEN YU across the border... it was considered such a coveted luxury. Now you can find EVERYTHING by Chen Yu at PHYSICIANS' PRESCRIPTION PHARMACY.

No dishes to wash! You just toss them away when you use paper plates, cups, forks and spoons from SUPER-VALU. They have oodles of bright, cheery paperware to PAMPER THE CAMPER and make outdoor suppers and barbecues a picnic for mother, too! Another bright idea for your summer parties... paper serviettes in brilliant solid colors. You'll find Lipstick Red, True Blue and other gay colors. You'll like "Dinner Kit"—a deluxe set of six plates, six cups, six serviettes, six forks, six spoons for just 29¢. Paper cups—a good selection for hot or cold drinks—come in a cellophane pack six for 10¢.

Stock up on luxurious "Embassy" paper serviettes... those huge, soft 3-thickness napkins are the nearest thing to linen. And be sure you have plenty of wax paper and "snack sacks"—wax paper bags for sandwiches. You'll find everything you need for carefree summer picnics at SUPER-VALU.

Renowned Wedgwood china and pottery! That's the most prized "take home" purchase that the American traveller can make in Canada. At LOANE'S, just now, they've assembled a collection of heirloom Wedgwood that will prove irresistible to Americans and natives alike. A complete line of Wedgwood is rarely shown outside a large Metropolitan.

Wedgwood pottery—some of the most treasured pieces ever to come off potter's wheel—have been a living tradition in Britain since 1744 when Josiah Wedgwood first turned to the art of pottery. Now at LOANE'S you'll find cigarette boxes, ash trays, teapots, vases, many more authentic Wedgwood pieces in the famous blue-and-white. The smaller pieces are priced as low as $2.50. In LOANE'S window you'll see fourteen different kinds of Wedgwood dinnerware displayed, yes FOURTEEN! Included are the world famous Whitehall, Stratford, Queensware and many more. Do see them all at LOANE'S.

TWO WEEKS WITH PAY! Summer holidays! It's enough to put your head in the clouds. But while you're packing for your trip, it's best to take your feet planted firmly on the ground. The time has come, as the walrus said, to talk of many things... of sun glasses, sun tan lotions, deodorants, bathing caps, plastic beach bags... all the many little essentials for a carefree holiday. My advice is to drop into MCGILL & WILLITS where vacation needs are prominently displayed and you can find EVERYTHING you'll need in one convenient spot.

Here's a good tip from MCGILL & WILLITS. If you plan to visit friends en route, tuck a few flacons of "Summer Wise" cologne in your bag. This frosty fragrance—by the makers of famed "Fabergé" perfumes—is an ideal gift for your hostess. A very special offer—a large 8 oz. bottle for $1.50 at MCGILL & WILLITS.

Calling all Stork Watchers! You'll make the waiting easy if you keep cool and fresh in summer tubules from ELEANOR MACK'S. Breeze-cool chambrays, tissue-thin British gingham, slub rayons, butcher linens, smooth silks... you'll find them all at ELEANOR MACK'S. You'll see the "That Way" label on deceptive cotton two-pieces for just $8.95! Colors and styles are young and spirit-lifting. You'll find fashion-endorsed checks, gay plaids, bright polka dots. Many with crisp trim in sparkling white pique. Some airy sun dresses with separate box jackets. Slacks, shorts and pedal pushers, too!

These are clever, concealing styles... designed by top stylists who excel in this specialized field of maternity wear. Let ELEANOR MACK'S help you enjoy the summer months. You CAN be cool and pretty—and in these "stork-dating" fashions you can be EXPECTING COMPLIMENTS!

The proper care and preparation of your fish before they reach the table is essential if you are to avoid wasting your catch—Game Department.

PRATTEN DANCERS AT BERRY SOCIAL

EAST KELOWNA—The strawberry social arranged by the members of St. Mary's Guild in the Community Hall, was well attended. The hall was decorated with peonies and other lovely flowers. A group of Miss Pratten's pupils entertained with some pretty and graceful dances. Mrs. Elford accompanying at the piano. Strawberries with ice cream, cakes and cookies were served. Later in the evening there was an auction of lovely cakes, with G. D. Fitzgerald and E. O. Middleton as the auctioneers. This brought lots of laughter from the audience. Some interesting pictures were shown by Rev. Rev. R. Clarke, bringing to a close an enjoyable evening. The proceeds from this successful event will go to the Guild's fund.

DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON... Mrs. D. E. Gordon, of Mission Creek, was hostess at a delightful luncheon Sunday last, honoring Miss Rose Quirico on the occasion of her birthday. Among the eleven guests present were Mrs. O. Cyr and children Sharon and Denise of Vancouver.

Aquatic Ripples

AN ORCHID TO YOU... and you! Alice De Puyler and Audrey James, two lively water sprites who work as life guards at the Aquatic and who have volunteered on top of that, to do some sleuthing for "Aquatic Ripples." These gals (if you ask old Ogopogo) are the prettiest part of the scenery at the Aquatic these days. Besides being decorative, they're very, very helpful. Congratulations, girls! We need you as our "seeing eye" at the Aquatic.

With the July 1st holiday breaking into the week, the deadline for Aquatic Ripples caught me unprepared. So the "Ripples" goes to press as a hurried potpourri of news and views about Aquatic doings.

First, a warm welcome to the new members of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Peggy Noakes, Bea O'Neill, Anne Peterson and Angie Zimmo, who attended their first meeting Monday night. Next, a plea for new members! The welcome mat is out to any Kelowna Miss or Mrs. who wants to get into the swim of Aquatic activities. It's fun to be in the swing of things, especially at Regatta time when the place is really humming. So, don't wait for a personal invitation. Just turn up at the next meeting—8:30 next Monday night at the Aquatic Club. Imagine! Three hundred and ninety-eight youngsters have enrolled in the "Ogopogo Club" for free swimming lessons. Swim classes got off to a chilly start this Monday with a few intrepid souls taking the plunge. But most are waiting for the water to warm up!

Incidentally, if you see any scenes of heroic rescues... or hear any blood-curdling screams... don't be alarmed. This week, seemingly helpless swimmers are plunging in to save them. But it's just practice for the Red Cross instructors' course which is being held here in Kelowna from July 2-5. About 30 people from other B.C. towns have enrolled for this course. Instructors are Dick Mitchell and Frank Kennedy from Red Cross headquarters in Vancouver. Dick is director of swimming and water safety for B.C.

Alice and Audrey tell me that an unidentified youth provided a bit of excitement down at the pool. The girls heard Jane Sterling yelling to this fellow, who was fully clothed, to come down from the tower. He did. He jumped off the clothes and all, then struggled out of the pool to collect his bets. All I can say is, there must be an easier way to make a living.

More news about the Ladies' Auxiliary. Val Winter has been chosen Aquatic candidate for the Lady-of-the-Lake contest... The membership drive has reached the $1,000 mark by last week-end but many, many more membership cards must be sold yet... Auxiliary members are congratulating themselves on the "new look" in the Aquatic lunch room. It's the result of an attractive new inlaid linoleum flooring, brought out of the pool from the fashion show. The new murals on the pavilion walls will be completed in time for the dance this Saturday. Artist Bob Scott will have Ogopogo's head completed. So do attend the dance and be on hand for the unveiling!

There's a work party tonight for members of the auxiliary who are busy making costumes and props for the Aquatic Regatta time. They're working under the direction of Margaret Hutton who must be the busiest gal in Kelowna right now.

Well, that's all for today. LUFF AND STUFF, from your favorite monster.

OGOPOGO.

Hither and Yon

FAREWELL... A surprise farewell garden party was given Mrs. Andy Reid at the home of Mrs. A. M. Carter, 454 West Avenue, prior to her departure for Kamloops where Mrs. Reid will join her husband.

WEEK-ENDERS... Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dawson, Vancouver, and Mrs. R. English and son Charles, of Bellingham, Wash., were guests of Mrs. H. V. Dawson over the holiday week-end.

FORMER KELOWNIANS... Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stewart, and son, Brian, of Vancouver, are spending two weeks here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stewart, 732 Harvey Avenue.

ATTENDED FUNERAL... Mrs. Douglas Barclay and young son, Douglas of Edmonton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, Jr., of Calgary, returned home Friday last following the funeral of their father, Mr. George Thompson, in Kelowna.

WESTBANK

WESTBANK—Norman Lerman, of the Department of Anthropology, University of Washington, Seattle, paid a visit to Westbank this week during a tour of the valley, on which trip he is gathering material on the Indians of the Okanagan.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dobbin during last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olmstead and their three children, of Twin Falls, Idaho.

Mrs. Stephenson spent last week-end with J. U. Gellatly and Misses M. Gellatly en route from Vancouver to Ontario where she will visit in the vicinity of her former home.

During the long holiday week-end Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hewlett motored to Kamloops, where their elder daughter, Miss Olive Hewlett, is living, and from there went on to Merritt to spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. (Bob) Hewlett and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril White, of Vancouver, motored from Vancouver to spend the holiday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dobbin. Miss Doreen Dobbin, of the staff of Westbank elementary school, has gone to the coast to attend summer school.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davidson, were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. es Humphrey, and small son, Gerry, of Vernon.

Mrs. F. C. Hoskins and her small daughter accompanied Mr. and Mrs. L. Trautman on a motor trip to Alberta, leaving last Thursday. While in the prairie province Mrs. Hoskins will visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. Baguley has gone to Golden for the summer months, where her husband is stationed with the B.C. Power Commission.

Westbank United Church held its annual Sunday School picnic on Saturday afternoon, July 1, at the lake, when the sun deigned to smile on young and old for the whole of the pleasant afternoon.

HOLD ANNUAL SCHOOL PICNIC

BENVOLIN—The annual Benvolin school picnic, sponsored by the P.T.A., was held June 24 at the Gyro Park. About 80 parents and children enjoyed an afternoon and evening of swimming, games, races and a picnic supper. Prizes, ice cream, hot dogs, and coffee were provided by the P.T.A. for all. Towards the close of the evening an electric kettle was presented by the P.T.A. to principal Garry Chatter, leaving the district shortly for Terrace, B.C.

Adventuresome Motorcyclist Tours Canada And U.S. On $6 Day Budget

Sydney Jayewardene, an adventuresome motorcyclist from London, England, visited Kelowna on Saturday.

Having considered settling in Canada, he decided to "come out and look the country over." Arriving in Montreal on May 13, he has travelled 5,000 miles on his two-cylinder motorcycle. Since arriving in Quebec, he has been to New York, Philadelphia, Toronto, and numerous other places. In his trip across Canada he came via an all-Canadian route and to Kelowna by way of Jasper, Windermere valley, the Kootenay valley, and up the Okanagan.

After his arrival in Kelowna, Mr. Jayewardene contacted Ian Collinson who in turn referred him to Bert Dickins. The service station operator then contacted a Courier reporter and an interview was arranged.

The likeable traveller stated that it was his intention to stay one or two days, then return by the Fraser canyon route. He must be back in Montreal by the end of August, return passage being booked on the Empress of France.

A vacation trip will take him to Vancouver, south through the States, across to New York and back to the eastern port. He speaks French fluently and is very much at home in the Eastern metropolises. Both his mother and his wife, whom he met in France during the war, are French; the latter owns an orchard in the southern part of the country. The couple spend half their time in France and the rest of the year in London, England.

By camping out part-time, Mr. Jayewardene has managed to keep to his budget of $6 a day and figures he will have spent $800 by the time he gets back to the old country. His average speed is fifty miles per hour and he gets 65 miles to the gallon.

A mechanical engineer, and a graduate of the University of London, he is qualified to make any repairs that may be necessary and has all the necessary tools with him. He likes the outdoors and has been obliged to seek an open air life since receiving a head wound during the war.

Prior to making the trip, the part of Canada that appealed to him most was British Columbia. Since arriving, he has been impressed also with the south western part of Alberta.

Mr. Jayewardene stated that he got "a good impression" of Kelowna, that it was both clean and attractive.

A visit to Calona Wines Ltd. was planned while here, the orchard property owned by Mrs. Jayewardene in France also includes a vineyard and he is interested in, and

BENVOLIN COUPLE CELEBRATE 59TH ANNIVERSARY

BENVOLIN—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Reid received congratulations from friends and relatives on June 20, the occasion being their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Reid are 91 and 81 respectively, residing here since 1903.

Among the congratulations was a request over CKOV from Barrie, Ont., and a telegram from Vancouver. The evening was spent quietly at home with relatives at an informal tea at which an anniversary cake was shared.

REV. H. R. MAGILL BIDS FAREWELL TO WESTBANK

WESTBANK—The congregation of Westbank United Church have regretfully said farewell to Rev. H. R. Magill, who delivered his last sermon in Westbank last Sunday, following which he unveiled the church dedication prayer plaque, presented to the church by the senior and junior women's associations.

Mr. Magill plans to retire from the ministry and will make his home in Calgary, to which city Mrs. Magill preceded him a couple of months ago.

PENTICTON HAS TRAFFIC LIGHTS

PENTICTON—Traffic lights at the corner of Main and Nanaimo, first of their kind to operate in Pentiction, went into action recently.

The signals will operate from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. every day except Saturday and Sunday. Saturday the operation will continue until 10 p.m. when the changing lights will be replaced by a flashing amber signal. The amber flasher will be in operation all day Sunday.

ANY STOMACH ACHES?

Children Consume 14,000 Popsicles, 8,000 Chocolate Bars, 12,000 Bottles Of Pop, Thousands of Dixie Cups

So memorable was Dominion Day for the city and district children that hundreds still are talking about the treats galore, the races, the parade and other attractions.

The estimated 3,500 kids taking in the festivities was gratifying to the Canadian Legion and the Elks Lodge who brought National Flag Day to Kelowna for the first time. Nearly 4,000 flags were given out and treats worth hundreds of dollars spread around the happy throng.

While tallying still is going on, it was estimated that 14,000 popsicles were eaten, as well as 8,000 chocolate bars and 9,000 dixie cups. The youngsters drank up 12,000 bottles of pop.

ADDRESS TO FLAG

One of the highlights of the day was the short address to the flag by Maj. Gen. R. E. L. Keller, CBE, after the parade reached The City Park. Purpose of Flag Day also is to teach children devotion to country and flag.

Another highlight was the crowning of Flag Day Queen Donna Archibald of Peachland and Princesses Elsie Newick and Lynne McDougall, both of Kelowna. Coronation ceremony was presided over by Mrs. Laura Marsden of the Order of the Royal Purple.

Charles Patrick was master of ceremonies of the many events in the park. The parade from the Super-Valu parking lot attracted hundreds of onlookers. The Canadian Legion Pipe Band spiked the parade.

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN EDMONTON

Funeral service for Oscar McCune, former Kelowna resident, was held in Edmonton Friday followed by interment, with Masonic graveside rites, at Loughhead, Alta., in the family plot. Death occurred in hospital in Edmonton June 25 at the age of 70.

The late Mr. McCune and his widow resided at 530 Sutherland Avenue here for five years before moving to the Edmonton district two years ago. Deceased was born in Belfast, Northern Ireland, October 5, 1881, coming to Canada in 1899. In 1909 he married Stella Watt of Innisfail, Alta., who predeceased him in 1937. He married Mrs. Agda Eckstrand of Loughhead in 1943.

Besides his widow he leaves six children—Charles, Grande Prairie, Alta.; Melvin, Milk River, Alta.; Mrs. P. (Vivian) Stitt, Hamilton, Ont.; Mrs. D. (Winnie) Wamsley, Loughhead; Victor of Edmonton and Maynard of Calgary; 12 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. L. Kennedy of Kelowna, and four brothers—A. D. of Pentiction; C. E. of Kelowna; Bert, Red Deer, Alta.; and Will of Phoenix, Ariz.

C. E. McCune of Kelowna and A. D. McCune, of Pentiction, brothers of the deceased, were in Edmonton for the funeral.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LIKED SUPPLEMENT

The Editor,

The Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,—I have been instructed by the Board of the Kelowna Hospital Society, to pass on to you their thanks for the excellent coverage given to the hospital during the past week. This support has been most gratefully appreciated by them and when we inform you that a count within the hospital showed that between 700 and 750 people inspected the new wing on opening day, you will definitely understand that this is in no small measure due to the publicity given by the press.

Yours truly,

C. F. LAVERY.

Secretary.

HALF CANADA'S WORKERS USE AUTO FOR JOB

About 3,500,000 adult Canadians use a motor car every day.

Only nine of every 100 miles they drive are strictly for pleasure purposes.

Nearly half of all employed Canadians use a car in connection with their work.

These are three of many hitherto unknown facts and figures contained in the unique report: "A Study of the Automobile in the Daily Life of the Canadian People."

The study, the result of a coast-to-coast survey, was sponsored by the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce. It is 100 pages thick and was undertaken to find out just how the automobile fits into the economic and social pattern of Canadian life.

The report shows that 84 per cent of all miles driven by Canadians are for some essential purpose. Only 16 per cent are for what is classed as non-essential and even that includes going to the movies, a ball game, or visiting.

The average Canadian drives 6,200 miles a year. The average speedometer reading of all cars in Canada is 27,000. Nearly half—500,000 of the 1,000,000 privately-owned passenger cars registered—are ten years old or more.

USED IN EARNING A LIVING

About 1,300,000 of the 1,900,000 privately-owned cars are used every week for earning a living. Nine out of ten are used either for working, shopping, or some other essential purpose.

Each month, nine out of ten adult Canadians use a car for some purpose or other. Nearly 7,000,000 use a car at some time each week.

Twenty-seven per cent of all households use a car every single day. Other major users: Professionals, managers, proprietors, executives (60 per cent); salesmen (57 per cent); skilled workers (39 per cent); farmers (41 per cent).

J. L. Stewart, general manager of the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce, commented: "The report shows that phenomenal changes have taken place in the extent of ownership and operation of the private automobile in the past decade. Recognition of the essentiality of the passenger car is gradually becoming more widespread at all levels."

KALEDEN SOLDIER HURT BADLY IN KOREAN WAR

KALEDEN—Private William Frederick Bolen, Kaleden, has been seriously wounded in the arm and chest in a Korean affray, according to a telegram received by his mother, Mrs. Ann Bolen, Kaleden.

Private Bolen lived in Kaleden for six years before joining the service. He was educated in Pentiction where he was prominent in school activities.

WILLIAM BILLMAN DIES

Word was received here today of the death of William C. Billman, King Street, while visiting his brother. Remains are being forwarded to Day's Funeral Service here for funeral service Monday.

CHANGES DECISION

Base umpire Al Laface called the runner out but plate umpire John Schneider ruled him safe. The game proceeded on the "safe" basis and three runs were scored to up
the tally to 10-8 in Rutland's favor.
CYO, plenty hot under the collar
let the third base ball were unable to score in their half of the ninth.
After consulting with Laface,
Schneider conceded he had pulled a boner and the runner from second to third was declared out. That was the third putout in that inning, ending the game right there and leaving the verdict 8-7 in CYO's
favor.

Ed Holitzki and Loren Gausley,
Jr., shared in pitching CYO to their first win. Fred Rieger started out for Rutland, relieved later by Jake Runner.

By losing the Rovers also lost a chance to catch up with the front-running Sunshine Service, leading the pack early this week by two points.

COUNCIL WAIVES
ELECTRICAL FEE

The appeal of Okanagan Packers for the waiver of a charge of $75 for installation of a power line into their packing house annex on St.
Paul Street has been granted by the city council.

After a week's consideration, council last week agreed to the waiver on the grounds that Okanagan Packers had been establishing here for many years, that interest in their main premises directly behind their main premises and because it is the only commercial building that can be on St. Paul Street in that block.

Mayor Ladd emphasized that
"this action in no way can be considered as establishing a precedent."

NOTICE

CYO Ballmen
Win at Last

That elusive first victory in the city and district men's softball league was finally tagged by CYO
Monday when they turned back the Rutland Rovers 8-7 at Athletic Oval.

The queer manner in which the game ended vied with the fact that the ever-trying CYOers had won their first game. Actually the teams left the field with the score at 10-8 in Rutland's favor.

However the score later was returned to what it was at the start of the eventful ninth inning. In the top of the last, Rovers loaded the bases with one away. On a grounder to short a runner was forced at home for the second out but there was some confusion on the status of the runner from second to third, where the CYO catcher made a perfect throw on the same play.

Base umpire Al Laface called the runner out but plate umpire John Schneider ruled him safe. The game proceeded on the "safe" basis
and three runs were scored to up
the tally to 10-8 in Rutland's favor.
CYO, plenty hot under the collar
let the third base ball were unable to score in their half of the ninth.

After consulting with Laface,
Schneider conceded he had pulled
a boner and the runner from second to third was declared out. That was the third putout in that inning,
ending the game right there and leaving the verdict 8-7 in CYO's
favor.

Ed Holitzki and Loren Gausley,
Jr., shared in pitching CYO to their first win. Fred Rieger started out for Rutland, relieved later by Jake Runner.

By losing the Rovers also lost a chance to catch up with the front-running Sunshine Service, leading the pack early this week by two

fact, the provincial riding of South Okanagan should be called "Central Okanagan" anyway. The Revelstoke tag, we presume, was added to assuage the feelings of the railway town which moves from Kamloops constituency into a new political sphere and will have to now reorient its political thinking. The Boundary tag is more of a puzzle. The Grand Forks people are not affected by the change and there is no reason to single out the Boundary country. If the name had been Okanagan-Border, it would have been quite appropriate, as a considerable portion of its southern boundary is the United States border. However, the name selected is not too objectionable.

The question that is paramount in any redistribution of course is the manner the change will affect the course of future elections. That is something only time and future ballots can answer, but it would appear, after examining Oliver, Grand Forks, Princeton, Copper Mountain votes that a reasonable assumption could be that Okanagan-Boundary may remain a CCF seat for a long, long time.

Farewell To Yale

There will be few tears, we imagine shed over the disappearance of the name "Yale" in the roster of federal political constituencies. There may be a few longtime political warriors who will have a regret or two over the change in name of what had been their favorite battleground, but even these we imagine are few.

The truth is that the name should have disappeared long ago. Or, at least, been removed from this to some other constituency where it would be more appropriate. For many decades now the Okanagan Valley has composed the greater part of Yale federal riding and the name was a misnomer. Other than being politically historical, it had no connection whatsoever with this constituency.

And now it is to disappear. This has been urged at frequent intervals by this newspaper which has always maintained that this riding should be called "Okanagan" as its natural identification. As "Yale" passes from the scene, we'll shed no tears.

WESTBANKERS OPPOSE SPLIT IN RIDING

WESTBANK—It is understood that Westbank is taking prompt action in opposing the splitting of the proposed line of division of the present Yale federal constituency into the Okanagan-Revelstoke and Okanagan-Boundary constituencies. This division, as outlined in the Kelowna Courier of June 28, from information received from O. L. Jones, M.P., will place Kelowna and, in fact, all of those living south of Reid's Corner, in the Okanagan-Boundary constituency, while Westbank, which geographically as well as horticulturally, is considerably farther south than the above points, is to be included in the Okanagan-Revelstoke constituency.

Expressions of opinion from prominent Westbank citizens are unanimous in condemning as "ridiculous," "absurd" and "Westbank will be entirely out in the cold" and "... why cannot a line of demarcation at Reid's Corner follow west across the lake at that point instead of following course imaginary or not, down the middle of the lake to north of Peachland, thus, as the Courier puts it, 'cutting Westbank off from all its former contacts'?" Another suggests that someone is "cutting Westbank off—period."

START REVIVING VICTIM AT ONCE

If you are confronted with a drowning accident, get the victim out of the water as quickly as you can, make sure there is nothing blocking the air passage, and immediately start artificial respiration by the method you know. The only additional word of advice from the Health League of Canada is: "Don't stop your efforts until the victim is breathing or until there is indisputable evidence that the victim is dead (i.e., rigor mortis has set in)."

TOURIST SIGNS TO BE ERECTED

City Council last week approved the erection of two signs at the corner of Pender and Bernard, following a request submitted last week by the local motel operators. A 24 by 28 inch sign will replace the finger post on the southeast corner of Pender and Bernard; this sign will direct incoming tourists to motels on Highway 97 and to the beach resorts off Pender. A smaller sign on the north-west corner will direct southbound tourists to the beach resorts. Aldermen Keller and Treadgold handled the discussions with the interested parties.

Supreme Court Decision Hailed By Board Head

G. A. Barratt, chairman of the B.C. Fruit Board, yesterday expressed satisfaction over the Supreme Court of Canada upholding the validity of 1949 federal marketing legislation authorizing provinces to direct the marketing of their farm products beyond provincial borders.

Mr. Barratt told The Courier that he was awaiting the text of the judgment before giving a detailed statement. However, he observed that the new judgment might have an effect on a previous Privy Council decision that marketing boards could impose service fees. He pointed out that B.C. boards charge licences to collect enough revenue for their operation. In other words under the provincial act, licences are issued to valley packhouse. This is the board's only means of revenue.

MAKE OWN SALES

Without the act, a grower in any Canadian province could have gone to another province or outside Canada to make his own deal in sales of farm products. In B.C. at present, the marketing board handles 99 percent of the out-of-the-province sales and acts more like a co-operative than a government agency. None of the decisions of the court are expected to affect B.C. fruit or vegetable marketing.

The Supreme Court of Canada reversed a judgment of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island and that held the Agricultural to act jointly with boards in the other Atlantic provinces to regulate and co-ordinate the marketing of potatoes.

A proposed levy on P.E.I. producers of one cent per 100 pounds on potatoes, they marketed was invalid.

On those two points, the Supreme Court of Canada agreed with the findings of the provincial court.

The P.E.I. board had been formed originally to market potatoes within the island only. It was given extra-provincial powers under the 1949 statute and a federal order-in-council based on the statute. Both the legislation and the order-in-council were held valid by the high court.

The P.E.I. court had ruled the legislation contravened the principle that federal powers could not be delegated to a provincial government agency.

The nominal defendant in the test case launched by the P.E.I. government was the island firm of H. B. Willis Inc.

WILL HAND OUT MORE DOPE PILLS

Because they proved so popular in the past as a publicity medium for the city, more "dope capsules" will soon be prepared for the Kelowna Board of Trade.

The "dope" will shortly be in the hands of the printers and distribution will follow. The capsules have gone as far afield as Italy, the British Isles, and all over the United States and Canada.

SOUTH KELOWNA LADIES HONOR MRS. I. C. FOSTER

SOUTH KELOWNA—South Kelowna ladies gave a farewell party for Mrs. I. C. Foster, former teacher at the South Kelowna school. The tea party was held in the lovely garden of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill, and there were 45 ladies present. On behalf of all residents of the community Mrs. J. R. Hardy presented Mrs. Foster with a pen and pencil set, and spoke for everyone when she wished Mrs. Foster and her family every happiness in their new home at Terrace, B.C.

Miss Patricia Burke, who is a nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, Victoria, is visiting her mother, Mrs. K. Burke for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nakamura, of Wilson Creek, B.C., are visiting Mrs. Nakamura's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kaemon Kikuchi.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. (Bill) Duyve-waert of Vancouver, visited Mrs. Duyve-waert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor this week-end.

Rodney Taylor accompanied his uncle and aunt on their return trip to Vancouver, and he will spend a month at their home.

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S newest source of hydro-electric power—the B.C. Power Commission's 4,000-horsepower Clowhom Falls Development—has commenced operation. The development serves the Sechelt Peninsula, upcoast from Vancouver, including the communities of Gibson's, Grantham's Landing, Hopkin's Landing, Selma Park, Wilson Creek, Roberts Creek and Sechelt. The development itself is situated at the head of Salmon Arm, a finger-like offshoot of Sechelt Inlet. It was in the picturesque, typically-British Columbian setting of the development that the new plant was officially opened June 25. Representatives of the Provincial Government, organization, businesses and industries of the Sechelt Peninsula, major suppliers and the Power Commission were on hand for a brief ceremony in the powerhouse marking the occasion. Actually, the event was just for the record. The Clowhom plant has been delivering hydro power since May 13 to the growing Sechelt Peninsula, where the Commission serves more than 1,300 customers, including about 1,200 residential consumers.

Valley Stone Fruit Crop Shows Return To Normal; Cherry, Peach, Cot Up

THE Okanagan stone fruit crops, after a two-year hiatus caused by winter damage, gives every prospect of returning to a near-normal production this year, according to the estimates made by the horticultural branch of the department of agriculture. The British Columbia production of cherries, peaches, apricots, plums and prunes is estimated to be 3,703,630 twenty-pound packages, considerably up from the 2,352,639 of the crop last year. Of these figures the Okanagan will provide 3,376,030 packages, whereas last year the Valley's production was only 2,085,485.

CHERRIES
Of the province's estimated crop of 384,810 packages of cherries, 272,210 will come from the Okanagan, which last year produced only 103,254 packages. Kootenay-Arrow Lakes will have 22,000 and Creston 26,100.

Breaking down the Okanagan figure, the estimated production of the districts is (last year's crop in brackets):
Vernon 500 (510); Oryama, Winfield and Okanagan Centre 6,000 (4,520); Kelowna 28,000 (7,712);

Westbank 5,500 (1,336); Peachland 6,900 (4,683); Summerland 31,000 (21,013); Penticton 40,000 (17,678); Naramata 18,000 (13,133); Kaleden 9,000 (8,115); Oliver-Osoyoos 125,000 (24,487); Keremeos-Cawston 1,500 (33).

PEACHES
While the increase in peaches is not as great proportionately as that in cherries, the crop is nevertheless up very substantially, from 1,097,121 to 1,694,620.

Oryama, Winfield, Okanagan Centre 12,000 (7,683); Kelowna 20,000 (7,470); Westbank 60,000 (33,029); Peachland 117,500 (80,418); Summerland 300,000 (249,888); Penticton 280,000 (254,943); Naramata 55,000 (48,839); Kaleden 70,000 (56,680); Oliver-Osoyoos 720,000 (368,764); Keremeos-Cawston 40,000 (8,510).

APRICOTS

While the apricot crop was just about non-existent last year, 93,627, it returns to near-normal this year with an estimated 621,800 packages. Oryama, Winfield and Okanagan Centre 25,000 (nil); Kelowna 6,000 (nil); Westbank 7,500 (nil); Peachland 10,200 (nil); Summerland 240,000 (13,047); Penticton 65,000 (20,248); Naramata 55,000 (3,977); Kaleden 35,000 (10,830); Oliver-Osoyoos 170,000 (45,512); Keremeos-Cawston 8,000 (13).

PLUMS

Plums, it is expected, will be down, dropping from 92,715 to 70,300.

Vernon 2,500 (1,038); Winfield area 3,000 (4,767); Kelowna 23,000 (27,894); Westbank 6,000 (6,357); Peachland 3,300 (3,740); Summerland 10,000 (17,073); Penticton 13,000 (13,509); Naramata 5,700 (6,038); Kaleden 750 (790); Oliver-Osoyoos 11,000 (10,551); Keremeos 450 (331).

PRUNES

The prune crop will be substantially the same as last year. Vernon 55,000 (44,100); Winfield area 55,000 (40,245); Kelowna 175,000 (161,865); Westbank 32,000 (35,394); Peachland 19,500 (28,177); Summerland 85,000 (69,840); Penticton 60,000 (72,110); Naramata 7,000 (9,019); Kaleden 20,000 (24,892); Oliver-Osoyoos 180,000 (168,001); Keremeos 14,500 (14,725).

The general crop report for the Okanagan districts as of June 28, was:

SALMON ARM-SORRENTO

Soil moisture conditions are excellent at the present time and the apple crop is sizing very well. Some hand thinning is being carried out on McIntosh and Wealthy. There has been a heavy drop in the McIntosh so little supplemental hand thinning is necessary.

Strawberry picking is just getting underway as the cool weather has delayed maturity. The crop of strawberries and raspberries looks very promising this year. A system of refrigerated pre-cooling is being inaugurated this season with the hope that the berries may be shipped to more distant markets.

The wet weather has been very conducive to scab development this year and unsprayed lots are severely infected. Recommended spray measures appear to be controlling apple scab satisfactorily.

The quality of the first cutting of alfalfa has been lowered by the rainy weather.

ARMSTRONG, VERNON, WINFIELD, OYAMA AND OKANAGAN CENTRE

Tree fruits are sizing satisfactorily. Growers are now busy thinning early varieties of apples and would be finished this coming week. Apple thinning will be up considerably on all varieties over the past season. A heavy drop has occurred on prunes and the cherry tonnage will not be as heavy as first expected. Prunes will still be a fair crop and cherries will be up slightly from 1951. First picking of cherries will likely be made during the first week of July. Strawberries of good quality are now being harvested and will reach their peak this coming week. Black currants in the Armstrong area will be considerably below previous estimates owing to a very heavy drop that has gone on within the past two weeks.

Vegetable growth is now quite rapid and there is a fair movement of early vegetables such as cabbage, hothouse tomatoes, bunched carrots and beets. Movement of cucumbers will not be general for a week or ten days. A few early potatoes have already moved out of the Armstrong area but digging will not be general for at least a

APT. OWNER MUST ELIMINATE BASEMENT SUITE

City Council last week ruled that the building at 1309 Bertram could not be made into an apartment house but should revert to a duplex, with the basement suite being discontinued as living quarters.

The basement ceiling is only six feet seven inches while the minimum health requirement and the city bylaw calls for seven feet six inches.

The building was built in 1945 but in 1947 changes were made without a permit and a basement suite constructed.

The present owner, F. Rushton, had applied for the building to be zoned as an apartment but both the building inspector and the fire marshal advised council against it.

CIVIL DEFENCE BOUNDARIES SET FOR OKANAGAN

The boundaries of the Kamloops target zone and the Okanagan Valley mobile support and reception area have been defined by the B.C. civil defence co-ordinator.

The Kamloops target zone is described as all that territory within a line joining, inclusive, Barriere-Sorrento-Falkland-Douglas Lake-Merritt-the C.P.R. line to, exclusive, Hope. Thence due north to, inclusive, Lillooet-Clinton, and thence to Barriere.

The Okanagan mobile support and reception area includes all that territory within a line joining inclusive Revelstoke-Arrowhead-Sugar Lake-Beaverdel-C.P.R. line-Rock Creek to 49th parallel; thence due west to a point due south of exclusive Hope, C.P.R. to Merritt-Douglas Lake-Falkland, and Sorrento, and thence eastwards along inclusive C.P.R. line to Revelstoke.

LOCAL APPOINTMENTS

It has been decided that the Grand Forks-Greenwood area shall be regarded as a "special area" for civil defence purposes, and will be assisted and administered at all times by the co-ordinator for the Trail-Tadouac target zone.

Local appointments announced are Captain A. M. Temple of Penticton as civil defence officer for Summerland, and Major G. D. Cameron as civil defence officer for Kelowna and district.

Under the Tower At Ottawa

By O. L. JONES, M.P.

The Redistribution Committee has finally agreed on the new boundaries for the two new ridings that are to be carved out of Yale. The southern half will have the same boundaries east and west as it had previously, but the northern boundary is a line drawn from the centre of the lake above Kelowna and along the southern boundary of townships 23 and 24, thence directly east to the old Yale boundary. The line will continue south down Okanagan Lake to a point above Peachland and thence west to Mission Lake along the old boundary. The northern half will include the remainder of Yale with the addition of the Revelstoke district up to Glacier. This will be an approximately equal division of the total population of the area involved. The northern half will be called Okanagan-Revelstoke, and the southern half Okanagan-Boundary unless there is a last-minute change in this name.

A bill to extend the tax agreements between the Dominion government and the various provinces was again extended for a five-year period and they are substantially the same as those that have been in effect for the past five years. The new bill has a higher guaranteed minimum which will be paid to our province than the old one. Under the new agreement, British Columbia will be guaranteed $29,647,487, whereas under the old agreement, our guaranteed minimum was $18,120,124.

While this sum is a minimum, Mr. Abbott pointed out that certain adjustments would be made, based on the national income which would increase the sum payable to British Columbia by roughly $12 millions.

The war veterans allowance act has passed the House, but it has not been given to the veterans what the Canadian Legion had asked for on their behalf, nevertheless, there will be fair increases for war veterans and their dependents, and I have no doubt the government will again be called upon to raise this figure to at least the one suggested in the Canadian Legion brief.

The Boundary Pipelining Corporation had another rough trip this week. Mr. Drew, taking part in the debate for the first time, spoke in opposition to granting a charter to his company. He claimed that the committee dealing with this bill had suppressed evidence that should have been heard, especially one witness who was giving reasons why he thought it was not sound economically and worthwhile to proceed with this particular pipeline.

A resolution by a Liberal member of the committee prevented this man from giving any further evidence. Mr. Drew based his argument on such procedure being unfair and said that no bill should be passed without all the evidence being heard for and against proposals.

Mr. Howe joined in the discussion, claiming that it was right and proper to grant this company its charter. Several speakers joined in the discussion and talked the bill out.

A short time ago, I interviewed officials of the public works department and later officials of the treasury board to find out why the Okanagan flood control scheme has not been developed. The answer explains the situation. Originally, the scheme was to cost 2½ million dollars, based on engineers' reports. Both the Dominion and provincial governments had reached an agreement whereby this sum would be shared and actually in both cases the money had not been developed. But when the plans were finally prepared and ready for tenders to be called, it was found that the cost of the scheme would be approximately 3½ million dollars. The increased cost was accepted by the provincial government and by the department of public works here in Ottawa, but when the treasury board found that the scheme was to cost an extra million dollars, they demanded further proof and reasons for the extra expenditure before they would pass this for payment. Naturally, the scheme cannot go ahead without the sanction of the treasury board; but I have been assured by the minister in the House of Commons this week that the work will definitely be started soon.

I expect to be in the Okanagan soon for the summer recess and I shall be very pleased to meet any groups or individuals who have any federal matter they would like to discuss with me. I shall endeavor to make it known when I visit the various towns and where I may be reached on that occasion. In this way, I hope to be able to keep in touch with the needs and thoughts of my constituents.

week or ten days. The spinach and asparagus season is now over and some excellent yields have been reported. Lettuce of good quality is moving out of the Armstrong area very freely but growers are not any too well satisfied with present prices.

Farm crops in general are making excellent growth and pasture land has never been better for this time of the season. Harvesting of alfalfa hay is now in full swing, when weather permits.

Orchard pests, at present, appear to be well under control with the exception of green aphids which will require extra sprays. Grasshoppers are on the increase on some range lands.

KELOWNA

All tree fruit crops are progressing very well. Except in the case of winter injured trees, apples are above average size for this season. Apple and pear thinning is not as large an undertaking as the blossom indicated owing to heavy dew and the use of fruit thinning sprays. A good crop remains in practically all orchards.

A start has been made on the picking of early sweet cherries. The usual orchard insects are appearing, but control sprays are effectively keeping them in check. Green apple aphids and the mealy plant aphid are present in more than normal numbers.

The growth of the heat loving varieties of ground crops has been checked by the cool weather. Otherwise, ground crops are progressing well.

SUMMERLAND, WESTBANK AND PEACHLAND

All tree fruits are sizing well so far. Thinner are now through with apricots and are well into peaches and pears. Many growers are now applying a third cover spray. There has been a spectacular infestation of pruno aphid during the past ten days. Control sprays have been applied but some lots may require follow up sprays to clean the pests up properly. There has been more pear psylla reported this year than for some time. Cottony maple scale and lecanium scale are becoming a problem in one or two apricot orchards at Summerland. Only one new outbreak of fire blight has been reported in the entire district this season. The prevalence of this disease certainly seems to have dropped off this spring although there is still plenty of time for it to become serious during the summer. On the other hand, powdery mildew, which has been quietest for the past three seasons, is once again making itself noticeable in McIntosh and Jonathan blocks.

PENTICTON, NARAMATA, KALELEN, KEREMEOS

The first picking of early cherries started at KeremEOS on June 17th and at Kalelen on June 23 and is expected to start in Penticton towards the end of this week. The picking of Bing is expected to start at Kalelen about July 1 and at Penticton about July 4. While cherries appear to be sizing satisfactorily and estimates have been revised upwards, it is felt that some warmer weather is needed to improve quality. Apricots continue to look promising although in many orchards the trees do not appear to be as vigorous as a month ago.

Growers are now completing the application of second cover sprays for codling moth after numerous delays due to adverse weather conditions. Some codling moth damage has been detected but so far "mites" are not very evident. Mealy plum aphids are causing much concern and grasshoppers are building up in every section. Cornium blight is quite extensive on apricots but fire-blight on pears is much less than at this time last year.

OKANAGAN FALLS, OLIVER AND OSOYOOS

Mealy plum aphid is prevalent in some blocks of pears and black cherry aphid is building up on some cherry trees. Otherwise, tree fruit insects are fairly well under control at the moment. Fire-blight has shown some increase during the past two weeks but is not a serious problem to date. Picking of Bings has commenced and prospects are quite good. As yet no splits due to rain have occurred. There was some concern as to the size because of the exceptionally heavy crop on the trees but as the fruit matures it is gaining the size satisfactorily in most cases. Apricot harvest will commence around the end of the first week of July. Size at the present time on this fruit is quite good.

Vegetables received quite a setback from the cool weather. In many cases the set of cucumbers was lost completely. Harvesting should pick up materially the latter part of this week as the new set matures. Potato harvesting like-

BENVOULIN P-TA ELECTS OFFICERS

BENVOULIN—The final meeting of the Benvoulin P-T.A. was held recently at which officers were elected for the coming year. They are as follows: president, Mrs. J. Haynes; vice-president, Mrs. H. Tucker; secretary, Miss Eva Teorok; treasurer, Mrs. H. Hill; membership and publicity, Mrs. L. Pettit; refreshment convener, Mrs. H. Johnson.

A cheque of $25 was sent to the school board to go towards the purchase of a duplicator for the school. The P-T.A. members had three guest speakers at their final meeting: Fred Bunce, principal of Kelowna Junior High, Miss M. Crossle and Hal Odium councillors for the Junior High.

The three speakers gave a clear picture of the part the councillors take between the rural school and urban school. Of the help and guidance that is given the rural girl or boy in becoming acquainted with many teachers, changing rooms and the terrific amount of children in the huge schools, all of which is strange to a country child who has been used to one teacher, one room and the friendship of all the children. They urged the children and the parents to co-operate and ask help with any problems to which the two councillors and the principal would give all the help they could.

CHURCH CIRCLE PLANS FUNCTIONS FOR THE SUMMER

BENVOULIN—The final meeting until fall of the McMillan Circle was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Fisher June 24. Plans were made to have a memoir book finished for the 80th anniversary of the Benvoulin United Church in September. Plans were also made for a raspberry social to be held July 24. A cheque for $5 was sent to help with expenses at Camp Hulbert. A wise has been held off, partly because the growers feel that it is worth waiting for the extra tonnage before the price might break. Digging should commence toward the end of the week. Picking of tomatoes should commence around July 1.

cheque of $30 was sent to the manse fund to help with necessary furnishings.

Mrs. McMillan, recent visitor to Naramata, gave an interesting talk on the training school there. A corsage of roses was presented to Mrs. C. Doran, superintendent of the Sunday school in appreciation of the fine work she has done. A bouquet of roses and sweet peas and a birthday cake was presented to Mrs. A. Hardy, Sr., in honor of her eightieth birthday.

The men later joined the meeting to see colored films shown by Rev. S. Crysdale. The films showed scenes in the Cariboo, Banff, and of some of our local farms and farmers and of the congregation at their respective churches. A hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. Crysdale and a farewell address delivered by H. Nichols to which Mr. Crysdale responded.

There's a Right Way To Do Everything!

... and the right way to re-roof is with advice and materials from the KSM. Proper roofing application will give many years of trouble-free service. Patched-up, makeshift jobs are seldom satisfactory. If you are going to the trouble or re-roofing, the proper application is necessary to ensure that your time, trouble and money are not wasted. There is a type of shingle or roofing for every type of roof design.

ASPHALT SHINGLES

Colorful Asphalt Shingles never need painting. The fireproof mineral granule coating forms a protective coating against fire and consequently a lower rating in fire insurance. Asphalt shingles can be applied right over top of your old cedar shingles. THICK BUTT ASPHALT SHINGLES... 210 lbs. per square. HEXAGON ASPHALT SHINGLES... 165 lbs. per square. JOHNS-MANVILLE CEDARGRAIN RIGID ASBESTOS SHINGLES—Not one ever burned! OVER THE ROAD or OVER THE ROUGH — GMC can take it!

KNOW why, more and more, GMC's are becoming first choice of so many cost-watching truck operators in every type of hauling?

One of the big reasons, they will tell you, is they can always get a GMC that's exactly "engined" for their particular kind of work.

There is no need for a GMC owner to strain away with an underpowered truck—or lose profit to a gas eater unsuited to its job.

That's because GMC builds the widest range of truck engines in the industry—GMC famed valve-in-head gasoline engines from 92 to 200 H.P. —GMC exclusive 2-cycle Diesels from 110 to 225 H.P.

And it's the kind of power you don't have to pamper!

Each GMC engine is specially lubricated against wear, specially ventilated against acid-forming fumes—specially designed for truck duty!

Why not let us recommend the GMC truck, tractor or six-wheeler perfectly powered for your job? It will be a real truck all the way—exactly the right combination of engine, axle, transmission and frame. Take your trucking problem—today—to your nearest GMC dealer.

Work Should Mean More Than Just Making Money

"A great many people believe that work is what you do to earn enough so that you can have fun during the time when you don't have to work," sums up Dr. R. O. Jones, professor of psychiatry, Dalhousie University, in an article in a recent issue of Health.

"This is a poor and curious philosophy, and it would be an important social change to make some general modification in this attitude by trying to teach our young people that work has some worth for itself and should be a source of satisfaction and of support to our mental health."

Dr. Jones points out that this is all the more so today, when homes are no longer close-knit family groups of people who do things together and give each other mutual support.

Work, he writes in the Health League of Canada magazine, should yield economic security, some measure of satisfaction from creative activity, and social contacts. And Dr. Jones finds that business and industry are attempting to meet these human needs in some degree. Furthermore, he cites actual cases where study has shown that where these needs have been met successfully, absenteeism has been substantially reduced and production has increased.

PROPER PLACEMENT

The Maritime psychiatrist does not think for a minute that vocational guidance has all the answers; but he does believe that a careful selection of workers and a fitting of individuals to jobs according to their temperament and ability is an important starting point.

"The worker who isn't properly placed in a job is almost bound to be discontented and dissatisfied," social scientists.

comments Dr. Jones. "Discontentment and dissatisfaction are just about as contagious as the measles, and only a very few workers feeling for themselves and should be a source of satisfaction and of support to our mental health."

The second recommendation in the Health League of Canada magazine article is for the provision of consultation facilities for workers who are dissatisfied. In companies where there is a medical service, a worker with any health problem, either mental or physical, should be encouraged to discuss his case with the doctor or nurse in charge.

MORALE FACTOR

Even in smaller plants which cannot afford their own personnel and medical services, something can be done about the all-important morale factor, notes Dr. Jones. Good morale is achieved when the natural leaders that occur in every group of individuals are recognized and the informal organization that forms around them fits as closely as possible with the formal organization of the plant. This makes the natural leader into the real leader rather than a subversive force which may run against the goals of management.

"Techniques have been devised to study plants and to pick out natural leaders," adds Dr. Jones. "This proved effective in raising military morale and it has proved equally effective among civilians."

Dr. Jones concludes by declaring that the mental health of industrial workers and of the nation as a whole could be greatly improved if everyone concerned made use of the many facts now available as a result of a great deal of research by social scientists.

Final Green Onion Crop Must be Grown from Seed

Large onions grown from sets are ready to harvest in midsummer.

To maintain a continuous supply of green onions through the summer and fall, seed must be sown. It is rarely possible to obtain onion sets to plant for a late crop. Seed of a bunching variety, such as white Lisbon, should be sown in drills 2 inches deep, taking the precautions usual for summer sowing in order to assist germination. Sow the seed thinly and begin to pull onions for use as soon as they are large enough. If soil is hilled around them as they grow the length of the white stalk will be increased. There is no reason why the green portion of a stalk should not be eaten, however.

If sets were sown to produce large onions, when the tops grow limp and topple over it is time to harvest the bulbs. They need not be dug right away, but before they have time to resume growth they should be taken up and dried in the sun for several days before they are stored in a dry, well ventilated place.

Onion plants that develop a seed stalk, with a ball-shaped seed pod at the top, will not make satisfactory bulbs, but should be pulled up as soon as noticed, and used for green onions. It is the larger onion sets that bear seeds, and the smaller ones which develop into mature onions.

These early onions will keep well during the summer and fall; and their mild flavor will be welcome in salads, in the period when green onions are not so plentiful. Some gardeners follow the ancient practice of tying their tops together and hanging strings of onions in the basement, or dropping them from garage rafters.

The onion is not one of the vitamin-rich vegetables, but its flavor makes it indispensable. Such vitamin content as it has is in the green stalk and leaves, which can be cut up and mixed with a tossed salad to impart the appetizing flavor.

A rich soil is required to grow onions from seed. A balanced plant food should be applied at the rate of a pint to 25 feet of row, before sowing.

"Stars Of Tomorrow" Give Pleasing Performance At Annual Dance Revue

The 15th annual dance revue of the Mary Pratt School of Dancing was successfully staged to a large audience Friday in the United Church hall. The revue presented a wonderful variety of dancing steps and techniques gracefully performed by local dancers who may well be stars of tomorrow.

Humor and sometimes amazement enfolded the spectators as they watched the little ones go gayly tripping through the skipping exercises. Included in this beginners class were Frances Buckland, Doris Ratzliff, Jocelyn Willett, Linda Cross, Della Munson, Shellagh Ferguson, Charlene Genovese, Elizabeth Flower, Marcella Mungford, Camille Costello, Gail and Gerald Green.

Bright green skirts and capes lined in red were donned by Doreen and Lillian Serwa, Ruth, Juanita and Patsy Pringle, Gwendy Lamont, Joyce Akerlund, Denise Hedegard, Eleanor Watson, Marilyn Rolph, Marlene Northan and Sheridan Carr-Hilton for their lively Irish jig.

HIGHLAND COSTUMES
Rhoda Risco soloed in the Sailor's Hornpipe, outfitted in the traditional white sailor suit after which the audience was taken to Scotland for the sword dance, performed by Pamela Fisher, Margaret and Janet Reid, Marilyn Cross, Lisa Ratzliff, Gail Gwilliam, Heather Vickers, Penny Shaw, Heather Reid, Linda Bazzett, Heather Carnes and Judith Nicholson, clad in Highland costumes.

A most appealing performance was given by Brenda and Sheridan Carr-Hilton in Les Poupées and then the jingling of the tambourine introduced the lively Tarantella.

danced by Noreen Gay, Marlene Klein and Joan Greening.

Popular applause reigned for Heather Bruce, Diane Barr, Sidney Shaw, Gail Gwilliam, Sally Clayton, Maira Mitchell, Barbara McPhail, Elizabeth Mowat, Evelyn Lee Matick, Lisa Ratzliff and Joan Bazzett at the completion of their Dutch dance in which they were appropriately costumed.

PEASANT DANCE
A spirited Tarantella group included Ruth, Juanita and Patsy Pringle, Doreen Serwa, Eleanor Watson, Marilyn Rolph, Gwendy Lamont, Joyce Akerlund and a trio of Antoinette and Brenda Carr-Hilton and Rhoda Risco.

Lillian Serwa and Catherine Clark rhythmically stomped out the Russian Peasant dance and Diane Carter and Shilagh Vetter favored the audience with their Seann Trimbhas.

The foursome of Doreen Serwa, Marilyn Rolph, Joyce Akerlund and Eleanor Watson gave an animated performance of a Russian dance, followed by tiny Diane Barr and Tammie Dickson, dressed in their Sunday best, tapping to the tune of "In the Good Old Summer time."

Barbara and Kenna Wynne resembled two pink clouds as they floated through a Scene de Ballet and another delightful number followed in the interpretation of "Humoresque," given by Marilyn Rolph and Doreen Serwa. Antoinette Carr-Hilton held the audience entranced as she stepped out in a typical Egyptian costume and lithely danced to "Pharaoh's Favorite."

A bevy of color flooded the stage when Diane Moubay, Beverly Green, Ann Bazzett, Johanne Greening, Noreen Gay, Marlene Klein, Pamela Fisher, Theona Pearson, Diana and Joan Delcourt and Pas De Quatre Lillian Serwa, Marlene Northan, Denise Hedegard and Catherine Clark stepped to a Chopin Valse outfitted in ballet costumes of pretty pastels.

By special request, Sally Jackson, Beverly Bond, Kathleen Moore, Wilma Unwin, Anne Parnely and Marcia Rowland of the Pentecost School of dancing, performed the "Solveg's Song" ballet.

COLORFUL FANTASY
The most spectacular number of the evening was a delightful fantasy, "The Mystic Hour," founded on an old Greek poem and created by Mary Pratt. Taking part in the fantasy were Marion Ferguson, Antoinette Carr-Hilton, Barbara and Kenna Wynne, Rhoda Risco and Brenda Carr-Hilton, fairsies; Doreen Serwa, Marilyn Rolph, Eleanor Watson and Joyce Akerlund, bates; Marlene Northan, Lillian Serwa, Patsy Pringle, Denise Hedegard, mothers; Margaret Reid, Heather Vickers, Linda Bazzett, Judith Nicholson, Penny Shaw, Shellagh Vetter, evening primroses; Diane Carter, Janet Reid, Heather Carnes, Marilyn Cross, Heather Reid, elves; Sheridan Carr-Hilton, glow-worm; Gwendy Lamont, Una; Ruth and Juanita Pringle, Diane Moubay, Ann Bazzett and Beverly Green, friends.

Accompanists were Mrs. H. Elford and Mrs. C. Ghezzi, Kelowna, and Mrs. Ida Swift of Pentecost.

Miss Pratt awarded prizes and certificates to those students who had worked especially hard during the year and to those who had perfect attendance. Miss Pratt also extended thanks to all who had helped to make the revue a success.

Classes re-open in September and early registration is desirable.

SURPRISE SHOWER HONORS BRIDE
Miss Meta Black, bride of June 30, walked up the steps of the home of Mrs. A. H. Povah, 443 Royal Avenue, Tuesday, last, to the strains of "Here Comes the bride" to find 40 friends waiting to honor her with a miscellaneous shower.

The tea table was centered with a "sweetheart" cake surrounded by pink roses. Mrs. D. M. Black, mother of the bride, and Mrs. J. Gervais presided at the urns.

After tea, a patient suffering from an unknown malady was wheeled into the living room. Mrs. W. Ratzliff as "Dr. Joy" performed an emergency operation, only to find the patient had gorged himself to bursting with delightful gifts for the popular bride.

OYAMA RESIDENT FOR 40 YEARS HONORED AT TEA

OYAMA—The K.W.I. entertained informally at the home of Mrs. R. M. Tucker on Wednesday afternoon, June 25, in honor of Mrs. Robert Allison, of Kelowna, where she recently moved. Mr. and Mrs. Allison had resided in Oyama for the past 40 years, and will be missed by the whole community. Other guests of honor who attended were Mrs. J. D. Quine, of Kelowna; Mrs. Campbell-Brown, Sr., of Okanagan Landing; Mrs. Alphonse Deschamps and Mrs. George Belsey, of Vernon, and Mrs. Margaret Reid and little daughter, of Vancouver.

Mrs. T. D. Shaw-MacLaren and Mrs. Deschamps presided at the tea table, which was centred by pink and red roses.

The president, Mrs. D. May presented Mrs. Allison with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, and said that the Institute was sorry to lose her as a member.

Miss Loraine Pattullo, R.N., was the recipient of a miscellaneous shower in the Oyama Memorial Hall, Thursday evening, June 28. After opening the many lovely gifts Miss Pattullo thanked her friends and invited them to her wedding on Monday, July 7, in St. Mary's Church. Oyama Refreshments were served by Mesdames A. S. Towgood, F. Whipple, T. Towgood, S. Thorlakson and B. Potchery.

FROM VANCOUVER . . . Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Roberts, of Vancouver, are guests at the Eldorado Arms.

First United Church Scene Of Pretty June Wedding

Four attendants in pretty pastel gowns preceded Jean Anne Rutherford up the aisle of First United Church, Saturday, June 28, where she pledged her vows to Dr. William Stephen Cave at 2:00 p.m.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Rutherford and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cave of Geraldton, Ont. Rev. R. S. Leitch officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiantly beautiful in an exquisite gown of fine chantilly lace in eggshell shade over heavy bridal satin in the same tone. A molded bodice, pointed at the front waist line, buttoned down the back with lace covered buttons, had a sheer net yoke, lace applique, and rounded neck. Sleeves of the lace were long and pointed over the shoulders, very full ankle length skirt, worn over crinoline, showed the natural scallops of the lace in place of hemline. Her Juliet cap was sheered and held a waist-length bouffant veil of illusion net. A cluster bouquet of tall-man roses was the final complement to the bride.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS
As attendants, Mrs. E. A. H. Weddell, sister of the bride and mistress of honor, wore a soft mauve, while bridesmaids Miss Dorothy Whitman wore pink and Miss Sheila Rutherford and Miss Aileen Rutherford, also the bride's sisters, chose soft shades of blue and green respectively. Their strapless gowns were identically fashioned of nylon net over tulle, featuring fitted bodices, full skirts in ankle length and net capes, daintily befringed. As headresses they wore a single band of net in shades matching their frocks with ester reeds on either side. Shoes in corresponding tones completed their ensembles and bouquets of sweet-peas and ester reeds blended with their dress.

Groomsman was Dr. Michael Coetsee, while ushering the guests were Dr. James Howey, Dr. William Newton, and Dr. Gordon Thompson.

Miss Sheila Rutherford sang "Love's Coronation." Baskets of delphiniums and peonies decorated the church. Ninety guests were received at the reception, held at the home of the bride's parents, "Rosalee," on Rosemead Avenue, where Mr. T. F. McWilliams proposed the toast to the bride. The groom responded. Groomsman Dr. Michael Coetsee gave a toast to the bride's attendants and took charge of the guest book. Many congratulatory telegrams were read. Guests joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to the bride on this, her birthday.

The bride's mother had chosen for the occasion, a two-piece dress of fine shantung in benedictine shade and black accessories. Her corsage was of Royal visit roses. The groom's mother wore a dress of crepe in powder blue, with navy blue accessories and garnet roses for corsage. The groom's sisters, Miss Millicent Cave, wore a pink dress and white carnations and Miss Althea Cave chose a white dress and pink carnations.

A white cloth with sprays of pink and blue flowers matched the floral arrangements on the bride's table, which was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake, surrounded by pink tulips and four tall pink tapers, tied at the base with pink nylon bows. French bride and bridesmaid dolls added uniqueness to the setting.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. E. Bonnar and Mrs. E. J. Clarke. Serviteurs were Misses Moira and Wanetta Brown, Miss Carol Nordman, Miss Lexy Cameron, Miss Althea Cave, Miss Anne Bazzett, Miss Betty Ball, Miss Mary Gowan and Mrs. A. Moss.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. A. E. Cave, Althea and Mildred Cave, Geraldton, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King and Carol Nordman, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. D. Rutherford and son Bruce, Mr. John McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. H. Weddell and son Michael, Dr. Michael Coetsee, Dr. James Howey, Dr. Gordon Thompson and Dr. William Newton, all of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. F. O. McDonald, Pentecost; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McDonald, Caverton and Mrs. Margaret Reid, Vancouver.

For their honeymoon to Gulf Islands by car and steamship, the bride donned a silk faille two-piece dress of navy blue with a peplum and three-quarter length cuffed sleeves, accessorized with a hat of exquisite pink straw flowers, pink nylon gloves and navy suede shoes and handbag.

Upon their return the newlyweds will reside in Vancouver.

TEEN FORUM

By OLI DAUM

Most teenagers, whether their first love is baseball or movies, keep up with the hit parade, from top to bottom.

The current favorites . . . novelty, dance or western . . . are as much a part of the teenager's life as is breathing. Some melodies don't stay around long, while others win a special place and keep it for some time. Even months after they have passed from the top 10, you recognize them as "all-time favorites."

Some such songs are "Too Young" by Nat King Cole, most of the Mills Brothers recordings, "Now Is the Hour," "I'll Walk Alone," the Four Aces' renditions, "Delicado," "String of Pearls" and dozens of others . . . you name them!

Then we have the other type . . . those that don't stay around long and maybe it's a good thing! I'm thinking of one in particular, a new release, "Oh How Lovely Cooks the Meat," Frankie Laine and Doris Day's rendition is making the song "popular" and how they can do this to their fans, I'll never know. The composer, Joseph Marais, must have written it strictly from hunger and if this ham can rattle off riff-raff like that in a weak moment and make a not-too-small fortune on it, then gangway, here I come! At the same time Marais is supposed to be quite an authority on music, especially folk songs . . . maybe he should stick to them! This song has a catchy tune, but the words? Ixnay! I doubt that I'm alone in my pines.

"Guy is a Guy" has been riding the turntables for 18 weeks, "Blue Tango" for 20, "Wheel of Fortune" by Kay Starr for 18 and "Blacksmith Blues" for 19.

In case you're interested, many of our favorites are currently on top in England too. For instance, "Blacksmith Blues," "Never," "Tell Me Why," "Cry" and numerous others. And that's it!

See you at the juke box.

UBC SUMMER COURSES . . . Miss Leonie Reid, Miss May Marr and Miss Iselle Marshall have left for UBC where they will enroll in the summer courses. Miss Marshall has been employed at the Union library in Kelowna for the past year.

STAR-STRUCK AIRMAN

THEY SAY that "all the nice girls love a sailor" but the Air Force is able to hold its own, at least with glamorous movie star Jean Peters, shown learning about the RCAF from leading Aircrewman Hugh Beaton, of Medicine Hat, Alta. On a recent week-end trip to Niagara Falls, LAC Beaton paid a visit to the 20th Century Fox location where the mystery "Niagara" is being filmed starring Joseph Cotten, with Jean Peters and Marilyn Monroe. The chance meeting with Miss Peters took place during a lull in the "shooting" but proved to be the high-point of the week-end for LAC Beaton who is stationed at Air Force Headquarters in Ottawa.

Rev. R.C.S. Crysdale Gives Farewell Sermon At Winfield United Church

WINFIELD—A large congregation attended the evening service at Sunday in the Winfield United Church where Rev. R.C.S. Crysdale preached his farewell sermon. The priest, Mrs. G. Crosby, of Kelowna, sang "Teach Me to Pray."

The two boys were presented with their pins by their Sunday School teacher, Mrs. F. Price, and a number of children were baptized.

The next service will be held on July 8 at 7:30 p.m. Rev. J. W. Pettie will conduct the service and there will be special music.

Mrs. J. W. Arnold left on Wednesday for a two-months holiday in Toronto and Belleville, Ontario.

Miss Mary White, of Nelson, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. White.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, of Vancouver, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Berry and children were week-end visitors at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sherritt, of Cloverdale, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sherritt.

Brian Lodge, stationed with the RCAF at Crowsnest, Alberta, is spending his leave with his father, W. Lodge.

Miss Joan Baldwin and Miss Gay Barr, of Vancouver, visited Mr. and Mrs. V. R. McDonald on their way to home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wickenheiser motored to Vancouver for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. George Pettigrew and little daughter, of Ocean Falls, returned with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McGarvie and daughter, Helen, and Mrs. J. McGarvie motored to Spokane and Wenatchee for a few days last week.

Rev. D. M. Taylor, Mrs. Taylor and little son of the United Methodist Church, left last week for Mountain View Bible College, Didsbury, Alberta.

B.C. Law Groups Hold Functions In Vernon

Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris, who is presiding at Supreme Court trials here, left today for Vernon to attend the annual meetings of the B.C. Section, Canadian Bar Association, and the Law Society of British Columbia.

The two organizations hold joint meetings, since all lawyers in British Columbia are members of both. The law society is the official body responsible for licensing and discipline while the bar association concerns itself with studies of legal matters.

The Vernon meetings will be held on Friday and Saturday with members of the Yale Bar Association as hosts. Mayor A. C. Wilde will extend a civic welcome to the delegates at the opening session. A. C. DesBrisay, Q.C., of Vancouver, vice-president for B.C. of the bar association, will preside and W. H. M. Haldane, Q.C., of Victoria, treasurer of the law society, will respond to the mayor's address of welcome.

The first day's session will be devoted to Canadian Bar Association affairs, with discussion of reports from numerous committees including those on civil justice, criminal justice, taxation, industrial relations, insurance law, maritime law, etc.

Gen. J. A. Clark, Q.C., of Vancouver, president of the Canadian Bar Association, will speak at luncheon on Friday while Tracy E. Griffin of Seattle will address the joint dinner on Friday evening in the Allison Hotel.

PRESENT CANDIDATES—A special feature of the Friday program will be the presentation to court of several Okanagan and interior candidates for call and admission to the bar. Chief Justice Farris will preside at the ceremony in the court house, Vernon, at 5:00 p.m. He will be assisted by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson, now holding court in Vernon, and Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson.

The law society meeting will take place on Saturday with Mr. Haldane presiding. One of the subjects to be debated is the $1,500 fee charged lawyers from other provinces who wish to practice in B.C. It has been suggested that this fee should be lowered and one proposal is that the amount should be the same as that charged by other provinces when B.C. lawyers wish to practice there.

Mr. Justice Manson will give the address at the law society's luncheon on Saturday.

Several social functions have been arranged for the lawyers and their wives, including a tea at the country club on Friday afternoon and a garden party at Orchardleigh Lodge on Saturday.

Most Kelowna lawyers will visit Vernon for sessions of the two organizations.

This is the first time that the important annual meetings have been held in the Okanagan and the event is a tribute to Vernon's diamond jubilee. Nearly 100 lawyers and their wives will be in attendance.

RUTLAND W.I. HOLDS PICNIC IN CITY PARK

RUTLAND—The Rutland Women's Institute held their annual picnic in the Kelowna City Park Tuesday of last week. There was a short business session held at which conveners were appointed for the various committees in connection with the flower show to be held August 6. It was decided to raise the per capita fee, as requested by the provincial headquarters.

Mrs. R. Ruff, delegate to the provincial conference held at the U.B.C. in June gave a report on the highlights of the gathering. Blocks for a quilt to be drawn for at the flower show, entitling the holder to a chance on this quilt will be on sale shortly. A picnic supper was served. An evening meeting will be held in July to finalize plans for the flower show.

Four members of the local Young Peoples' Union of the United Church are spending a few days at Camp Hurst, they are Beverly Quigley, Gerry Gray, Glenda Fitzpatrick and Vivian Geen.

Miss Carol Gray left Friday for a holiday trip with friends to Yellowstone National Park and other U.S. points.

The Women's Federation of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. E. Muford for their monthly meeting on June 25. The president, Mrs. Alex Bell occupied the chair. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. E. Cousins who read from the study book a chapter dealing with the prehistoric French-Canadian. A complete layette that is being sent to one of the northern missions was on display. This is part of the missionary allocation. The sum of $120 was voted for the manse fund, as Rutland's share toward new furnishings for the manse. A dainty tea was served by the hostess and the co-hostess Mrs. George Cross. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. D. Quigley.

The Northern Circle of the United Church held a successful strawberry social and home cooking sale in the church basement on Friday evening last. The affair was well attended and an enjoyable evening was spent with a number of contests and the showing of a number of films of local interest, several dealing with the building of the new church. Gerald Geen contributed two accordion solos to the program.

Rev. Stewart Crysdale conducted his farewell service on Sunday afternoon, June 29, at the Rutland United Church. A large congregation including several visitors from Kelowna, were on hand to hear his parting message. Mr. and Mrs. Crysdale will be missed in the life of the church as well as the community. Mr. Crysdale left for Chatham, Ontario, on Monday, Mrs. Crysdale having, with their daughter Anne, preceded him there two weeks ago. They will stay at Chatham for July, and will then go to Brantford where Mr. Crysdale will assume his new charge, the Colbourne Street church. While wishing their minister the best of everything in his new field, there were many who expressed the conviction and the hope that the Crydables would return once again to this province, and particularly to the Okanagan.

Pat Balfour is home for the week-end holiday from Nelson, where he has been working at a sawmill for some months past.

Geoff Walburn met with an accident last week when returning from a fishing trip in the McCulloch district, accompanied by G. Whittaker. His light delivery slid off the greasy road in a rainstorm, and rolled over the bank. Neither occupant was injured, but damage to the truck exceeds $300.

Mac Forsythe motored to the coast last week for a short holiday, combined with business. Mac is planning to start a taxi service here in connection with his garage.

Adam Qualsner is home from a spell of several weeks in hospital, following a mild accident near Beechville, when he suffered the loss of most of the fingers of one hand.

His arm is still in a sling and he will be under the doctor's care for some time.

Alderman Haddleton expressed his opinion at the council meeting when it was decided that no free space should be allocated to visitors but that, as an experiment, signs would be erected on the meters asking residents to leave the two stalls outside the free tourist information bureau for use by the visitors.

Ald. Wilson Hunt, chairman of the traffic committee, could offer only sympathy for the Board of Trade's request for free space.

AMERICAN LAUDS CANADA'S FARM TRAINING PLAN

PENTICTON—Canada's vocational agricultural movement has made greater strides in its first two years of existence than its American counterpart made in 20 years. Henry Robinson, director of vocational agriculture at Kalspell, Montana, told the B.C. convention of the Future Farmers of Canada at lunch in the Penticton high school cafeteria. More than 30 instructors and students from B.C. centres including the Okanagan and Fraser Valleys and from as far away as Creston and Dawson Creek attended last week's convention.

New Boxla Scoring Mark Almost Certain This Year

Only a broken leg or a similar catastrophe can keep Sarge Sammartino from setting a new boxla scoring record.

The smooth sharpshooter is rolling along at a rate of nearly 10 points a game and if that pace is kept up and he plays in the rest of the games (league schedule calls for 24) he will amass more than 200 points.

When Bert Beftola, with Kamloops last year (but now with Vernon again), broke Sammartino's record by totalling 138 points, it was generally felt that it would take some beating to exceed that mark.

The "some beating" is being witnessed now. Sarge, in Vernon's 11 games to date, all victories, has chalked up a point total of 103 on

MISSION ORANGE

California Sunshine Flavour

59 goals and 44 assists. At the rate he's traveling he can pass Beftola's mark in four more games. Vernon has 13 games left to play in finishing league commitments.

RITCHIE FOURTH
Sarge's linemate, Allan Gill, still holds down second by a comfortable margin. Another linemate, Merv Bidoski, has taken over third place, his 37 points being five better than John Ritchie's total.

Ritchie paces the Kelowna Bruins with 23 goals and 29 assists for 52 points.

Bruins still are the most penalized team, though Salmon Arm and Kamloops are catching up. Penalties in minutes for the four clubs are: Vernon 124; Salmon Arm 173; Kamloops 175; Kelowna 194. All but Salmon Arm have a match misconduct penalty, which do not show in the totals given.

NET NOTES

By AD VAN TAGE

WORK BEE TONIGHT

Calling all members—and we do mean all! The hustle of preparation reaches a crescendo this Sunday as competitors begin arriving for the twenty-second annual B.C. Interior tournament.

Starting tonight, promptly at 7:00.

a major work bee gets under way on the courts and in the club house. With the exception of one, or two, all courts will be closed to regular play until after the tournament as tapes are nailed and painted, nets repaired, courts are weeded, rolled and watered, hedges and lawns trimmed and stands painted.

Inside the club house, the gals, under Gwen Armstrong, are putting the finishing touches on the ladies' lounge, which looks exceedingly gay in its new decor of forest green, cerise and lime green. All hands—junior and senior—will be welcomed with open arms.

With so much to do in such short time the more who turn out the less time it will take. And tackled with enthusiasm, it's more fun than work!

FINAL MEETING

Following a work bee a final meeting of the tourney executive to tie up any loose ends, will be held in the club house.

Speaking of meetings, one of the executive is still trying to live down an oversight of several meetings ago. Asked to contact two club members regarding committee conveniences, it slipped his mind. In due time, with no objections registered, the same conveniences were posted. It was with dismay that two well-known young marmos read of their new duties in the Courier. Orchids to Ida Kerr, billeting convenor, and Edna Parker, catering, for good sportsmanship and the old team spirit!

The task approached with a notable lack of zest is the erection of a marquee on the lawns, under which tea is served every day. Requiring the skill and brawn of a circus roustabout, committee members regard it with a jaundiced eye.

JUST WEDS SETTLED

The club's newest Mr. and Mrs. team, Art and Doris Smith, will be well settled in their new home before the tourney begins.

The likeable redhead and his pert bride moved into Kay Longley's house on Riverside Drive this week.

See where Jim Macken lost to brother Brendan in five sets in the semi-finals of the Ontario championships in Toronto last week. Brendan went on to defeat Lorne Main, also in five sets. Jim and Brendan teamed up to take the doubles against Main and Fontana in three sets. A nice send-off for Jim before he heads west next week to his job in Vancouver.

That's game until next week. See you at the work bee tonight!

ROWING REVIVAL SEEN AT NELSON

NELSON—Nelson's Rowing Club is back in business after a lapse of several years.

Organizer Bud Greenwood had two full crews (eight rowers) lined up and ready to start workouts last week.

Greenwood, who with Roy Sharp is coaching the crews, is optimistic about his team's potential since two crew members have top-notch inter-collegiate experience.

They are Ray Johnson, member of the U.B.C. Thunderbird crew which pulled a major upset earlier this year by whipping highly-touted University of California and Bruce McLean, member of University of Washington's team which managed to down U.B.C. in the Coast Con-

Local Sharpshooter Wins B.C. Tyro Championship

Another B.C. championship has come to the City of Champions. Latest provincial crown was won Monday by Dan Hill, one of the eight-man team from the Kelowna B.C.D. Rifle Association competing in the annual B.C. Rifle Association meet at Vancouver. Hill won the tyro trophy for B.C.

And right on his heels in second and third for the same title were two other members of the Kelowna squad—Ron Weeks and Clarence Henderson, in that order.

The Orchard City team took to the shoot like ducks to water. In fact they had to be a lot like ducks for it rained during the entire two days they were shooting on the Blair Range.

Of the eight (one was from Enderby and one from Vernon) who went to Vancouver as the Kelowna team, six made the finals and four of them landed a berth on the B.C. team that will go to Ottawa next month for competitions to select a Canadian team for the famed Bisley shoot.

Kelowna Puck, Ball Teams To Go To Nelson

Two local teams of contrasting sports will be in the friendly city of Nelson next week—midsommer bonspiel week in the Queen City of the Kootenays.

Packers will play in the annual summer hockey game July 12 against the Nelson Maple Leafs while the Kelowna senior baseball team has accepted an invitation to compete in the $2,500 ball tournament also run in conjunction with the bonspiel. Dates are July 11, 12, 13.

Several of the Packers play on the baseball team, thus cutting down travelling and subsistence expenses for the ball nine.

MAKING COMEBACKS

But money, a stranger to the diamond dusts so far this year, is a commodity they'll need to get to Nelson. To help raise it, a special exhibition game is being worked up featuring the "no-names" and a team of "has-beens" who maintain they still have it. This game likely will come off Tuesday of next week.

Coming out of retirement will be Dr. Cec Newby, Fred Kitch, Hank Wostrowski, Paul Bach, Harold Johnston, Crete Shirreff, Laurie White, Rudy Kitch, Marlow Hicks, Eddie Cousins, Dick Murray, Dave Newby, Buck Slater, Andy Kitch and Ken Winterbottom.

Marlow Hicks is whipping up the ex's.

While the Kelowna team needs money to get to Nelson, they are confident they can get back on their winnings. First prize should give them a wing-ding of a trip back—it's $1,000.

ELKS BOLSTER MOUND

KAMLOOPS — Kamloops Elks have bolstered their mound staff with the addition of Baz Nagel from Kilsno, Vancouver.

ference meet after a close struggle. Both are Nelson boys home for the summer.

Even though he now has two full crews, it's only a start. Greenwood is out "With all the equipment available at the rowing club, we can accommodate 60 to 70 rowers," he said.

BOXLA PLAYERS FIND GRIZZLY BEAR BONES

Four local stalwarts of the Kelowna Lacrosse Club, Lloyd Taggart, Bill Baker, John Ritchie and Dave Ritchie, feel that they have unearthed evidence that grizzly bears really romped in the Kelowna vicinity many years ago.

Recently, while digging post holes in the city park, to create an open air lacrosse box for junior lacrosse players, they dug up two bones. Although no one has officially declared them to be from the legs of a grizzly, they look very much like it.

The Kelowna Lacrosse Club is interested in establishing the identity not only because the name Kelowna is Indian for grizzly bear, but also because the Kelowna "Bruins" Lacrosse Club derives its name thereby.

In building a fence around the former playing area in the City Park, the club believes that it will encourage lacrosse immensely. There are about sixty juniors playing lacrosse all over the city at present. Incidentally, more volunteers are needed to help in the digging and erect a fence.

SUNSHINERS WIN IN 12TH INNING; CYO 'SLIPS AGAIN

A 12-inning classic highlighted softball action on two fronts Friday evening.

The dragged out affair was at Rutland where Sunshine Service pushed across two unearned runs in the top of the twelfth inning to grab a 6-5 victory over the Rovers. Both runs scored after an error at first base that could have resulted in the third putout.

But it took clutch home run hitter George Rieger to keep the Rutlanders in the game as long as that. The mighty mite blasted one of Schmidt's pitches in the last of the ninth for a bases empty four-bagger and, the run that tied up the tilt at 4-4.

In Kelowna the same evening, CYO again showed promise of turning the tables but, again they lost the touch with the finish line in sight. Pete Guidi hurled Club 13 to the 9-1 triumph over the CYO's. The losers' home run came on Joe Welder's homer.

Sunshiners 020 000 011 002-6 13 1 Rutland 210 000 001 001-5 10 3 Schmidt and Middleton; Runner and Stremel.
